CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

(Allegations of Violation of Pretrial Conditions of Release)

A.

On motion of the Government involving an alleged violation of conditions of pretrial release, and a warrant for arrest,

B.

The court finds:

- (1) (A) () Probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a Federal, State, or local crime while on release;
- (B) () By clear and convincing evidence that the defendant has violated any other condition of release; and

- 1 (2) (A) ☒ Based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3142(g), there is no 2 condition or combination of conditions of release that will 3 assure that the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the 4 safety or any other person or the community; or 5 (B) ☒ The defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or 6 combination of conditions of release. Per DMILES' stipulation
7 (3) () There is probable cause to believe that, while on release, the defendant
8 committed a Federal, State, or local felony, and the presumption that 9 no condition or combination of conditions will assure that the person 10 will not pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the 11 community has not been rebutted.

12 OR

- 13 (4) () The court finds that there are conditions of release that will assure that 14 the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the safety any other 15 person or the community, and that the defendant will abide by such 16 conditions. See separate Order setting conditions.
17 () It is further ordered that this order is stayed for 72 hours to allow
